Dear Mr. Zahran,

I have been informed that upon arrival in the United States in summer 2005, your passport and alien registration card were taken by the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, U.S. Customs and Border Patrol agents. The most accurate information I have indicates that they still have those documents. I have been in contact with that agency and they have informed me they are searching for the specified documents so that they can be returned to you.

Re: United States v. Khaled Zahran
06-CR-548 (SRC)

Dear Judge Chesler:

My client, Khaled Zahran, is currently on Supervised Release after having been sentenced to time served by the court on October 7, 2008. Mr. Zahran has extremely urgent legal business in Jordan involving his marital situation, as well as custody issues concerning his young child. These matters have been raised to the government, the agent involved in his case and the Probation Department. All parties agree that Mr. Zahran should be permitted to travel to Jordan for the purposes stated herein. I have enclosed a copy of the authorization already prepared by the Probation Department and respectfully request that Your Honor So Order this letter permitting Mr. Zahran to travel to Jordan, as set forth in that authorization.

Respectfully,

Lee Ginsberg

Encl.
